

Sept. 7, 1939.

William Hastie, Esq.,
Howard University Law School,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I am dropping you this line to remind you of your promise to talk with me on your trip to New York Monday, Sept. 11th. I thought you may have misplaced my address.

I will appreciate hearing from you, and will meet with you any time or place you designate.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ